FIRE COMMITTEE WILL RECOMMEND

To the City Council a Number of Improvements and Important Extensions.

Chairman Thomas Boehm of the councilman's fire committee has prepared the following report containing recommendations as to the fire department and its desired improvements and extensions, which he would have submitted to the council last Friday night, if that body had met, and which he will submit at the first meeting hereafter the council holds:

Honorable Mayor and Councilmen for the City of Clarksburg.

Gentlemen: The fire committee after many called meetings and discussions from time to time the best way to advance and improve the fire department. We have adopted the following recommendations, and do ask that the same be read to the council, and we ask that there be no deferred date to cause any long delays. Your fire committee recommends and do ask for the following improvements:

Article 1.—One fire station made of brick to accommodate one fire engine, one hose motor truck and two thousand feet of hose, and sleeping rooms for ten men who are to be there all the time, what is known as a twenty-four hour shift. This building to be located in the central part of the city.

Article 2.—We recommend that a hose house be placed in the east end of our city, same to be of brick, which will accommodate one wagon and two horses, two thousand feet of hose and sleeping room for three men.

Article 3.—We recommend that the west end of our city is to have the same protection as Article 2 provides for the east end.

Article 4.—Some of the late fires in our city and others we have read about, the committee speaks of them only as a reminder to you who saw the flames of fire eating its way into one of our handsome sky scrapers, and what our firemen should have had at that time was the aerial truck. The committee continues the requisitions, and they recommend and insist on a fifty foot hoisting aerial truck to be stationed in the central fire station for quick action in case of repetition of the past.

Article 5.—Your committee has made a full investigation covering the fire department and find there is much required to put our firemen in line to handle large fires. We further recommend that there be one hundred feet of sectional ladder bought at once and also ten smoke helmets.

Article 6.—We recommend that there be placed in the central fire station five hundred feet of rope ladder, and ten helmets be kept on the hose truck. The chief can issue them out to those who will voluntarily assist in the fight, and when same is returned to the chief the party will receive a time slip for pay check.

Article 7.—We ask that there be two more men employed for the fire department so there can be a schedule, what is known as the twenty-four hour shift. This will put eight men on duty all the time; two to be relieved twelve hours at a time.

Article 8.—In case we should have two fires at the same time, as the last one in our city, we question if there would be enough hose to give the protection that we should have. We ask that the committee be empowered to order fifteen hundred feet of hose at once from the Fabrick Rubber Company; same kind and same price as the last invoice from them.

Article 9.—Your committee has been attentive to its duties in conducting this department for the last twelve months. Having but a small amount of money to spend, we were obliged to be economical and could not put our requisition at this early date and ask for their adoption so they can be provided for in the next budget, when the distribution fund is being made up.

of the other states.

In support of my conclusion I cite the following cases: People vs. Counts, 89 Cal. 26 Pac. 612, wherein it was held that a proposition for the issuance of bonds for funds "to be applied to the construction of two public wagon roads in Marin county, one from Coulterville to Bear valley, and one from Mariaposa to Bear valley," did not contemplate two distinct purposes, but only one purpose within the meaning of the California statute.

City of Oakland vs. Thompson, (Cal) 91 Pac. 387.

Tinn vs. City of Omaha, 107 N. W.

Kemp vs. Hazelhurst, 80 Miss. 31

Clark vs. City of Los Angeles, 116

Pac. 722.

In the ordinance under consideration it is provided that a portion of the bridge bonds funds be applied "to open and extend streets, ways and approaches, leading to, upon and from said bridge, or bridges." I have not deemed it necessary to discuss this provision because the building of approaches leading to a bridge are but incident to the building of the bridge itself. A bridge without approaches would be valueless. In the case of Post vs. Board of Education, 71 W. Va. 10, the supreme court of appeals held that a bond issue for the purpose of building school houses necessarily implied the right to purchase ground upon which to place the school houses. So, I hold here that a bond issue authorizing the building of bridges necessarily implies the right to build approaches to such bridges.

Further, even if I be in error in holding that the building and repair of more than one bridge into Glen Elk constitutes but one general purpose within the meaning of the statute, and that under correct interpretation a plurality of purposes must be held to be contemplated by the ordinance, still I think that the failure on the part of the city council to specify in the ordinance the amount that would be expended for each purpose does not vitiate the proceedings, because I am of opinion that the statutory provision to the effect that the amount to be expended for each purpose be specified is not mandatory, but directory merely, for if such specification were made the voter could not avail himself thereof to vote for one item and against another but under the statute, if he voted at all, he could only vote for the whole or against the whole.

Code of W. Va. Chap. 47A, Sec. 5. For the reasons I have given I am of opinion that the plaintiffs are not entitled to an injunction. The demurrer to the bill is sustained.
